Incidents in Connection with the Death of Col. Baker.

An aid of Gen. Fremont, Maj. Plumley, now in Washington, relates the following conversation which took place between Col. Baker and himself, on Friday evening the 18th:

The Major had just arrived, and, after meeting the Colonel, the latter said to him: "Come and go up with me to-morrow," alluding to a visit to Poolesville.

"No," said the Major, "I will come and see you next Wednesday."

"Next Wednesday," replied the Colonel; "don't wait till then. We shall have a brush before that, and you know there is no telling who may get a shot."

This remark of the deceased has proved true, indeed. The conversation being continued, the Colonel spoke of the merits of a son of Maj. Plumley, an officer in his regiment, and said that he would promote him as soon as he returned. The same day the Colonel made his will and placed it in the hands of Col. Webb, and told him that if anything should happen to him in the battle which he thought near at hand, to have his body brought to his house.

Some time before Col. Baker was shot Lieut. Col. Wistar received a shot in the cheek, and ten or fifteen minutes afterward received a second shot in the arm. When Lieut.-Col. Wistar approached Col. Baker, and the latter said to him, "What, Colonel, shot again?" "Yes," replied Lieut.-Col. Wistar; "but just please put my sword in the scabbard for me, will you?" Col. Baker complied with his request, and then ordered him to the rear.

At the moment Col. Baker fell, a party of some twelve or fifteen rebels rushed out of the woods after the body. Capt. Harvey perceiving this said, "For God's sake, don't let them get the Colonel's body," when Capt. Bierall inquired how many of his company would follow him. Three or four men, with the Captain, then rushed up to where the Colonel's boy lay and brought it in. While so doing one of the men of Capt. Beirall's command was shot in the head and killed.

INCIDENT AT COL. BAKER'S FUNERAL.—A thrilling incident occurred at the house of Col. Webb, just as the remains of Col. Baker were being removed to the grave. His brother, Surgeon Baker, came forward, and choking with tears, requested that the body might be borne out by a number of young soldiers, who had rescued it at the peril of their lives, from the hands of the enemy, (as related above.) When Baker fell it was found that after he had been pierced in front by six rifle bullets, the barbarous enemy had thrust two bayonets into the back of the mutilated corpse. The attempt was then made to carry him off as a trophy, but these young heroes sprang to the rescue of all that remained to them of their commander. They fought hand to hand with rebels, face to face in close and deadly encounter, until the body was recovered and borne off in triumph to the Union camp. It was well that such a guard of braves should be the last to bear the shrouded remains of such a man as Baker to his final resting place. They marched by his side in the procession, and when the prayer of Mr. Dennison was concluded at the cemetery, they came forward and bore the body to the dark and silent vault. The vollies followed, the troops formed in platoons, the music changed from a funeral to a martial air, and the obsequies of this martyr to Union and Liberty were at an end.

HONOLULU ITEMS.—The government paper, published at its expense, has been discontinued; and a native paper, Kuakoa, is now sustained by the natives.

Cotton seems to have done well the past season in the Islands, and its cultivation will be greatly extended the coming year.

The 20th November was kept at Honolulu as a day of Thanksgiving. The institution is extending.

There was a meeting of Mormons at Wailuka, on the 18th November. Three thousand were said to be present. The mormons claim that they have seven thousand professors of their faith in the Sandwich Islands. Most of the foreign sailors practice it.

GARIBALDI CAN'T COME.—Garibaldi writes to the American consul at Antwerp, under date of Caprera, Sept. 10—"I saw Mr. Sanford, and regret to be obliged to announce to you that I shall not be able to go to the United States at present. I do not doubt of the triumph of the cause of the Union and that speedily; but if the war should unfortunately continue in your beautiful country, I shall overcome all obstacles which detain me, and hasten to the defence of a people who are dear to me."

Forty-two thousand six hundred horses and mules have been purchased by the United States Government, for the army, at a cost of $5,500,000.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 7, 1861.

The Oregonian is the only paper in the City which receives the Dispatches.

☞ Some interesting articles will be found no the first and last pages of this paper.

The Rebellion.

The San Francisco Herald, which under several editors has been a half disunion paper—that is, it professed to be for the Union, but on every possible occasion would stab the government like the rebellious leader of old—has now under a new editor become a decided democratic Union paper, and gives facts to its readers which have been withheld from them in relation to the origin and plans for this rebellion. In these dull times for news, we make a brief abstract of his statements. The evidence, he says is abundant that the scheme for separating the two sections of the Confederacy was planned with the most careful deliberation, and Senators and Representatives from the South have since 1837, been sent to Congress for the only purpose of inflaming sectional animosities and making preparations for the present lamentable catastrophe. It is well known that members of Congress from the South, at Washington, had been in the habit of holding secret meetings, which it is now admitted, were held for the purpose of advancing this measure.—Floyd's treachery was by no means original. Nearly every preceding administration had its Floyd, who was a subservient instrument of the conspirators. It is well recollected that in 1837, a remarkable book was published in the South, said at the time to have been written by a confident of Calhoun, called the "Partisan Leader," which foretold, with remarkable accuracy in 1837 the events which have transpired in 1861. Not only did it provide the excuse for the war, but described its progress, step by step, from the rising in South Carolina, to the secession in Virginia. That the "Partizan Leader" was the official pronunciamento of the so called leaders of the States Rights party, not a shadow of doubt exists. The "Southern Literary Messenger" of 1837—a publication exclusively Southern in all its views, political and otherwise, contained a review of this "Partizan Leader," at great length, by, as the editor said, "one of the most accomplished scholars in Virginia." The reviewer attached great importance to the work, and although he professed a certain kind of attachment to the Union he covertly led the reader to the conviction that the events described were certain to take place, and cunningly insinuated that the Southern States should prepare for them. He described the book as being "political prophecy," and dwelt with emphasis upon Jackson's "usurpations" and the wrongs by which the South had so long been insulted and oppressed.

The rebellion thus planned and determined on long years ago—and of which there is a large mass of accumulated evidence from 1837 to the breaking up of the Democratic National Convention by the South in 1860—shows that all the sophistries by which secessionists here and elsewhere seek to excuse their treason, are unworthy of a moment's consideration. Even the plea that they were angered by the election of "a sectional President," becomes but a flimsy apology for treason. They sought to effect his election. Had Douglas been elected, the result, it is now plain, would have been the same. The plan of the revolt was laid in 1837 and perfected under the administration of James Buchanan. During all the intervening period restless agitators were employed to prejudice the Southern mind against the North, and familiarize it with the idea of secession. It was determined that the revolution should come off, and we are convinced that the election of Douglas to the Presidency would not have postponed the catastrophe.

It is a fact that belongs to history, that a few days before Douglas was called from earth, he commenced writing a work designed to show that this rebellion was long contemplated, and that the breaking up of the Convention at Charleston, which had assembled to nominate a democratic candidate for President, was to bring about, as soon as it could be done, this rebellion. Many of our great public men in the Northern States, and including Mr. Clay and several other distinguished statesmen of the South, were thoroughly imbued with the conviction that there was a deliberate design among the politicians of the South to break up this government.—It was in view of these facts that Henry Clay in 1850, in his great speech in the Senate, declared that in an attempt to accomplish this purpose, "the power, the authority, the dignity of the government ought to be sustained at all hazards." He apprehended the designs of the politicians of the South and he placed upon record his opinion what ought to be done when they entered upon their hellish work of rebellion. That man, who at this day, with the history of the country before him, can coolly say that the rebellion was brought about by the republican party, is simply a political knave.

Thanksgiving Sermons.

The Advocate has given us sketches of the sermons delivered by Rev. Mr. Dillon, of the M. E. Church, and Rev. Mr. Caffrey, of the Presbyterian Church, in this city, on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28th, 1861. We give very brief extracts.

Rev. Mr. Dillon thus very happily commenced his sermon:

We have no proclamation of Thanksgiving from our Governor; but the following from King David to his happy subjects, we may regard as given to us from the "King of Kings and Lord of Lords:"

TEXT.—"Praise ye the Lord; for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant and praise is comely. * * He hath not dealt so with any nation."—Psalm, 147: 1 and 20.

* * * * * *

We have lauded our Washington, but we have forgotten the God who gave him. We have been proud and exultant over our Fourth of July, and buzzed for our constitution, our Union and the glorious flag, but have neglected to praise Him who gave us, our national existence, of which these were but the emblems. Like Nebuchadnezzar, we have gazed upon this splendid temple of liberty, and proudly said, "we have built this by the might of our power and for the show of glory," and have forgotten the God of our fathers, and the God of our nation. "The great day of calamity came. "The self-exalted have been abased." The flag which we have have exalted to the skies has been humbled to the dust. Our eagle, so proud in his sublime flight upward, has received an unexpected shaft, guided, alas! by one of his own pinions, and has fallen to the earth. We may thank God to-day, that tho' wounded he lives, though down, he will rise again, and yet gaze upon a nation, more united, prosperous and happy than ever. The spirit of Washington is abroad in the land. Our President is a man of prayer; our McClellan prays; our Anderson looks to God; hundreds of our officers in the army and navy are men who honor God; thousands of our soldiers and millions of our citizens are daily offering up prayers to God for our country. God heard those cries, and our country is safe. The fact is demonstrated before the world, that the American Government is a Government, and can bring down the right foot of its power to crush the vile serpent of rebellion at home, as well as defend itself against foes from abroad. Our gallant ship of State, by the blessing of God, is passing the breakers and going out again upon her God-given mission, to bless the world and glorify God.

Rev. Mr. CAFFREY's text was

Isaiah ix: Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy; they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

* * * * * *

In reference to our beloved country, war has indeed fallen with its terrible scourge; but God hath hid us in our hills and valleys, and removed us far from the crash of war, and has sheltered our heads. Let us, then, be thankful to him for our benefits, while here, under own vine and fig-tree, with peace for the past and hope for the future, we may strive for the future of this coast. It is the Lord's doings that we are so far removed from those horrors. As members of this great nation, we see, even in the horrors of the present, a dawn which shall gild the future with glory. In the Revolution of 1776 there was little that was joyous, but out of that arose blessings for two generations, and out of the evils of the present we know that we shall reap blessings. Some of them have already occurred. We have had doubts as to the existence of our institutions, and surrounding powers have written their failure. Those doubts have passed away forever. Who doubts now the stability of our government? Who would listen now to the insane declarations across the waters, that man is incapable of self-government? We have demonstrated the stability of our government, and that our institutions are as firm as those guarded by despots. This is a priceless blessing, and we see it already scattering its benefits in the reestablishing of commerce and manufactures.

A very full report of the sermons of the Reverend gentlemen are given in the Advocate of this morning. They will be read with general satisfaction.

Later from Oregon City.

Safety of the steamer Onward—scarcity of breadstuffs—distress among the inhabitants—Linn City all swept away—forty persons rescued by the steamer Onward—boat and two men go in safety over the falls.

We are indebted to Mr. F. B. Risley for the following information from Oregon City—from which place he arrived last evening. He crossed the river at Linn City, and came down on horseback.

The water had been four feet deep in Main Street, Oregon City; and most of the frame store-houses had been swept from their foundations, and but one store was opened yesterday for trade in the city.

Gov. Abernathy's metal covered store-house fell down, and is in ruins.

We understand that many more houses have been carried away from Oregon City. than we had supposed; but we cannot state the number of the occupants or proprietors.

Great distress exists in the city for breadstuffs, and it is hoped that the first boat which goes up will carry a supply.

All the houses in Linn City have been carried away, except two houses which were near the mountain.

Houses were seen going over the Falls, during two or three nights, with lights still burning in them.

Mr. Risley reports that the day before yesterday a small side-wheel boat (the name of which he had forgotten) with two men on board, passed over the falls with great rapidity.

He also reports the arrival of the steamer Onward, on the day before yesterday, (the steamer for which our people felt so much anxiety).—The captain reports that he picked up on his passage down, some forty persons—which he took from trees and housetops, where they had climbed for safety.

The account that the break-water is destroyed, is true. It will be a total loss. The frame of the ware-house is standing; but the weather-boarding and contents of it were washed away.

The stage-driver at Oregon City, says that the stage will not be able to run for four weeks on account of the loss of bridges.

Dr. Newell reports that he has information of a great destruction of property and buildings at Champoeg.

The river at Oregon City, had fallen four feet yesterday morning.

We were not able to understand why the Advertiser seemed to be disposed to form a new express line, to the injury of Tracy & Co.'s. The last Times does Tracy & Co.'s line justice—by saying that it has always been faithful and prompt in its engagements.—Oregonian.

Will our neighbors do us the justice to explain the above, so far as relates to the TIMES.—Times.

We annex the article from the Times upon which our remark was founded:

"PERSONAL.—By reference to our new advertisements this morning, it will be seen that Messrs. Mossman & Co. have started an express to the Nez Perce mines, extending from thence to this city, and all other places of note on the Pacific coast. Mr. Mossman is deserving of success, as he has evinced more than ordinary perseverance and determination to prosecute his enterprise. We are confident that all matters entrusted to his care will be promptly and faithfully attended to. His references are among the best of our country.—Portland Times, Nov. 1.

We call attention to Messrs. Mossman & Co.'s advertisement in this morning's issue, who have opened an express from California, through Oregon, and on to the different mining localities in the upper country.—Portland Advertiser, Nov. 1.

Now, in further explanation of our remark, in Friday's Oregonian, we will say, that at the time the quotations from the Times and Advertiser were published, Tracy & Co.'s Express was in successful operation—had been so for a long time—and, as we believed, was giving general satisfaction. From the limited amount of business on its different routes we could not see that any great public object could be secured by establishing another express line.

The Times will explain. The Advertiser's reply to us, is characteristic of that concern, and is unworthy of further notice.

COMMON COUNCIL.—Present—Higgins, Hallock, Hill, King, and Masters, Masters in the Chair.

Resignation of Councilman Scott, read and accepted.

On motion, S F Burr was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Scott.

On motion, Messrs Higgins and Hallock were appointed members of the committee on fire and water.

Remington & Clark's bill, $16 07, and the bills of O. Risley, $16, W. Grooms, $15, D F. Harrington, $9 37, were ordered paid, and those of Seymour & Joynt, $28, and the Portland Gas Light Company, $28 74, were referred to Financial Committee.

Special Ordinance granting license to retail liquors at the Willamette Theatre, was passed.

Petition of P Martin for license to retail liquors, was read and laid on the table.

Adjourned.

DRY DOCKS CAUGHT AND TIED UP.—We are glad to learn that Mr James Clinton's Dry Docks, which were carried away by the flood, are now safely anchored some seven miles below this city, in Love's Slough.

Rev. Wm. Roberts, Bible agent, will preach at the Baptist Church next Sabbath, A. M., and at the Congregational Church in the evening, at which time he will present the claims of the American Bible Society.

THE RIVER.—Up to two o'clock this morning, the river had fallen twenty inches, at this point.

The Minstrels still play to good houses. Everybody should go and see Mike Mitchell, to-night.

LATER FROM THE COLUMBIA RIVER.—From Tracy & Co.'s Express, we learn that the express from the Nez Perces and Salmon river mines, failed to connect with the boat at Walla Walla. (Very likely on account of the great depth of snow in the mountains.) The Columbia river is rising at an unprecedented rate. It had risen some fourteen feet at the Cascades. Maj. Lugenbuhls command, from Colville, was at the Deschutes river, and unable to reach the Dalles.

The Julia brought down a large number of passengers.

STABBING AT VANCOUVER.—We learn that Charles Lawrence, known in this city as Crazy Charley, was stabbed at Vancouver by a soldier, on Thursday evening,—severely but not dangerously.

We are informed by Mr. Thomas Stevens that two pair of millstones, supposed to belong to the "Island Mills," have lodged on the island opposite his house.

We are glad to learn that the "Standard Mills" at Milwaukie are considered entirely safe.

The Columbia river is rising rapidly at Vancouver, being now within six feet of high water mark. The high floods in the Columbia and Willamette, at this season of the year, are unprecedented.

The Government has advices from Louisville that accounts received there from Virginia represent that the citizens of that State are becoming very tired of the presence of the rebel troops, and anxious that they should leave the state, even though it brings Virginia under the rule of the Union. The occupation has already impoverished the State of everything to be eaten or worn, or used in any shape. Between the masters who have sent their slaves South, and the slaves who have taken themselves North, there is no prospect, were the South to succeed, that Virginia would have slaves enough within her borders to make it politic or profitable for her to maintain the institution. She is struggling literally for a shadow, and exhausting her strength in the effort to grasp what is constantly receding.

The schooner Sea Witch, lately returned to Honolulu from a whaling voyage to the Arctic ocean, brought two masodon tusks, which they sawed off so as to save about four feet in length. They are six inches in diameter. The mastodon, it is supposed, made its home on the shores of the Northern ocean when that region was sufficiently warm and inviting to them. There are many remains of the mastodon there. But who knows their history?

The Question Settled.

HAVING just returned from San Francisco, I have the pleasure of informing the public that my Gold Bars will be received at Par Value!

by the following Bankers and Assayers in San Francisco:

Bather & Church,
S. Molitor & Co.,
H. Harris & Co.

Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs A M Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue combined with the pure juice of the California grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath & all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females such as Leucorrhoea or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches" or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science and they occupy with others an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country, as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army for more extended labors, Dr L J Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's office is at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to visit him in person, by enclosing $10 in their letters will get immediate attention to their cases. Address L J CZAPKAY, M. D. San Francisco, Cal. june26d&w1y

English Opinion.—The London Daily News says: "The war which now divides the American States, is in its principles by far the most momentous that has been waged in our times; and if as a nation we have taken no part in the conflict, it is all the more important that the light in which we regard it should not be misrepresented.' The opinions and sympathies of the nation on the serious questions at issue in this struggle have never wavered for a moment, and it is important to assert this against those who like our cotemporary would fain confound political neutrality with moral indifference."

The Cincinnati Commercial of October 22, says: "The Government cannot be accused of neglecting the State of Kentucky at this time. Six regiments of Northern troops entered that State yesterday—three Pennsylvania, one Indiana, one Ohio, and one Wisconsin. At least additional regiments will go in before the close of the month. Indiana has five regiments ready all but the guns, and they are in process of shipment from the East. Ohio has an equal number about ready for a Southern excursion."

Commercial and Financial.

The flood having prevented all communication with the interior, there is no change in prices of general merchandise.

The absence of any arrivals of produce for the past week has limited the supply of some articles of produce, and the low stock, and fears of the destruction of the produce stored on the upper river, has induced some speculation.

Flour is held nominally at $7 ℔ bbl. for best brands.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges from both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, [illegible] and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment [illegible] the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a life existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the entire recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of [illegible] passion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed on the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found, to my [illegible] horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms were more alarming in their torture; and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, [illegible] would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, [illegible] examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that you under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed.

[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 30, 1861.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not fully got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute, with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves, so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the stoppage of those emissions, which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your [illegible] and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the papers. Believe me gratefully yours,

THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

Certificate.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my labor, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from dan[illegible] enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state, and having, previous to my [illegible], tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my case, [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his [illegible] of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
